14. Approximately 1,800 people visited OP clerical recruitment exhibits at two job fairs held in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area this past week.

15. The Director of Personnel briefed staffers from the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence (SSCI), which is examining CIA as part of the SSCI's survey of Intelligence Community personnel programs. The Director of Personnel provided an overview of the current Agency situation and advised that a modular approach to meeting the Agency's future needs currently is being conducted by an OP Human Resources Task Force. The SSCI will hold hearings on Community personnel programs later in July and expects to issue a final report by the end of the year.

16. During 14 - 21 July the Office of Training and Education (OTE) held the first running of the new Intelligence Issues Course designed for Executive Secretaries as part of the Agency's Secretarial Training Program. The course focuses on how the Agency deals with current intelligence issues and covers such areas as the intelligence process, the Intelligence Community, the role of the Agency and other organizations within the Intelligence Community, and functions of specific offices within the Agency. Sixteen Executive Secretaries from CIA and one each from the Defense Intelligence Agency, the Department of State, the National Security Agency, and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms attended.

17. Karen Brooks of the University of Minnesota led a discussion on Soviet agriculture and Philip Stewart of Ohio State University and Werner Hahn of the FBIS Analysis Group led a discussion on Soviet politics at two OTE seminars presented the week of 9 July.
